

Ike Back At White House

Returns from Rest at Gettysburg Farm; to Preside at Cabinet Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower returned from a long weekend of rest on his Gettysburg farm today and went directly to his office to dictate a memorandum before presiding over a Cabinet meeting.

The President went to his office long enough to dictate the memo to his secretary, Mrs. Ann Whitman, then went to the living quarters of the White House for lunch and a nap before going to the Cabinet meeting.

This was the President's first visit to his office since last Monday afternoon when he complained of a "chill" and was sent to bed.

Illinois Will Be Battleground in '58, Alcorn Says

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—National GOP Chairman Meade Alcorn today told Illinois Republicans opening a two-day "pattern for victory" conference here that their state will be "one of the important battlegrounds" of the 1958 congressional elections.

Alcorn, who will address the conference Tuesday, said in a message to the Republican State Central Committee that the goal of the GOP in Illinois next year not only will be to hold present Republican strength in the state congressional delegation "but to extend it markedly."

He said the "sorry record of the Democrat-controlled 85th Congress should provide added impetus to the drive for a Republican Congress in 1958."

Alcorn said "the Republican state administration under Gov. Stratton is providing the people of Illinois with excellent government. The 14 Republican members of Congress and Sen. Everett Dirksen have proud records of accomplishment in Washington."

"Seldom has there been more talk and less real accomplishment," he said, than in the Democratic 85th Congress. "Pressing national needs were shrugged off as Democrats played partisan politics and let urgent national interests go hang. Only 37 per cent of President Eisenhower's program was enacted, one of the most dismal records of all time."

Illinois, he said, will be one of the "important battlegrounds where voters will determine whether responsible Republican leadership shall replace Democratic political bickering."

Stratton will address the conference Monday night.

GOP State Chairman Stanley H. Guyer said about 500 persons were expected to attend the conference to lay the groundwork and set the issues for the 1958 state and congressional campaigns.

Fire Destroys Home of Attorney Lester Lightfoot

Atty. Lester Lightfoot lost his residence and all its contents in a fire early Saturday morning, it was learned today.

The Harrisburg attorney resided in a new, ranch-type house a mile and a half northwest of Galatia.

Mr. Lightfoot, whose law offices are in Harrisburg, said the fire occurred about 2:30 a. m. Saturday, presumably from the furnace. He said he heard a booming noise and soon the house was afire.

He was able to get nothing from the house. Also, he said, his pickup truck parked near the building was destroyed by flames.

The home was partially insured, he stated. He also said he hopes to rebuild on the site.

Stevenson Is Invited to White House Meeting

Will Attend Briefing For Congressional Leaders Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson has been invited to a White House-legislative meeting this week in a move to strengthen bipartisanship in foreign affairs.

The administration took the unprecedented step of calling Stevenson, titular head of the Democratic Party, to the briefing for Congressional leaders Tuesday on administration plans to beef up NATO against Russia's increasing challenge.

The State Department said Stevenson had been asked to take part in the session because he has been working on the NATO proposals in his role as administration consultant.

The former Illinois governor "has accepted" the invitation, it said.

There still was no word, however, on whether Stevenson would go to Paris later this month as part of the U. S. delegation to the "summit" meeting of North Atlantic Treaty nations calls to deal with Russia's missile scientific threat.

There was some chance the session might result in the first face-to-face meeting between President Eisenhower and Stevenson since Eisenhower defeated the latter for reelection.

Eisenhower plans to sit in on today's cabinet meeting to finalize proposals for Tuesday's legislative session, which he also hopes to attend if his doctors allow it.

Two Arrested Here for Burglaries At Paducah, Ky.

Dwayne Hill, 17, Ledford, and Farrell Morse, 20, Carrier Mills, were arrested by county officers over the weekend and are being held for McCracken county, Kentucky, officials.

The two are wanted in connection with three burglaries at Paducah, Sheriff William T. Barrett stated. They have waived extradition and were scheduled to be picked up today by Sheriff Russell Jones of Paducah.

Held at Paducah in connection with the burglaries is Cecil Headrick of Saline county, arrested several weeks ago.

The body remained at the Harrisburg funeral home chapel and funeral services were held there at 2 p. m. today. Rev. R. J. Morgan officiated and burial was in the Sunset Hill cemetery.

Michael Segretti, 52, Chicago, was killed at the wheel of his car Thursday when the vehicle struck a utility pole. Police theorized he had fallen asleep.

Another Chicago man, Robert DeWitt, 17, was killed Thursday in Chicago when his car turned over.

Glenn Miller, 25, Prairie City, was killed near Smithfield Saturday when he was pinned under his wrecked car.

A car driven by Henry Adelman, 42, of near Springfield, rammed a parked truck in Springfield Sunday. Adelman was killed.

John A. Balassone, 25, Chicago Heights, was killed Sunday when his car left Ill. 1 at a curve near Grant Park.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Olin Mathieson Chemical Company's new research, development and production facility for solid rocket fuels at Herrin, Ill., is "essentially complete," J. J. O'Neal, assistant manager of the explosives division, announced today.

Jenner Out of Senate Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Sen. William E. Jenner's surprise announcement that he will not seek re-election sent Indiana Republican leaders scurrying today to find a replacement.

The state's junior senator announced Saturday night that he would bow out of the 1958 senatorial race. Regarded as Indiana's best vote-getter, the outspoken rightwing foe of communism had been considered a sure candidate and probable victor.

Jenner's decision also stirred considerable activity in Democratic Party circles, and a scramble for the Democratic nomination seemed certain with the man they considered the top COP candidate out of the race.

Jenner announced his decision in a brief letter to Indiana Republican Chairman Robert Matthews. He said he wanted to take up private law practice in Indianapolis rather than engage in a political battle for his seat in 1958.

'Bird Watchers' Gather for Imminent Launching of Rockets

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The "bird watchers society" of newsmen and photographers began gathering on the beaches in force today to check reports the guided missile test center would put on its biggest display of rocket launchings this week.

Unofficial reports indicated at least four missiles, including the Vanguard satellite-launcher rocket, were being readied on the launching pads.

The reports listed a Snark ready for firing Tuesday, the Vanguard Wednesday, an Atlas Thursday and a Thor on Friday. In the jargon of the missile center, such rockets are called "birds", and the corps of spectators "bird watchers."

The Snark, however, is not a rocket. It is a 5,000-mile range pilotless plane with a rocket booster for takeoff and a ramjet engine for flight. It has been tested successfully numerous times and is slated as the chief weapon for a new Air Force combat group.

The Vanguard is a 72-foot long three-stage rocket developed by the Navy. Reports indicated that scientists will attempt to put into orbit around the earth with the

Mrs. Barbara A. Wilhelm, who would have been 92 on Dec. 17, died in her Stonefort home Saturday morning. She is survived by her husband, Leo Wilhelm. The funeral was held in the Thornton funeral home in Stonefort at 2 p. m. today with Rev. George Smith officiating. Burial was in the Bolton cemetery.

Vanguard a 72-foot satellite measuring 6.4 inches in diameter and weighing almost four pounds.

Atlas May Be Delayed

Informed sources said the Atlas may not go off as scheduled on Thursday. There have been published reports from California, where the Atlas is manufactured by Convair, that the huge intercontinental ballistic missile was damaged during a hold-down test of its engines here last Wednesday.

The Atlas, developed here under an Air Force contract has been tested twice before and each time had to be destroyed at a comparatively low altitude because of malfunctioning of some of its parts.

The Thor is another Air Force ballistic missile in the intermediate range class. It was launched successfully for the first time only recently. The Thor is the Air Force counterpart of the Army's 3,000-mile Jupiter which also has been tested successfully here.

Fire Chief Sets Damage Around $75,000-$80,000

Credits Carrier Mills Firemen for Saving Townes Building

Fire this morning destroyed the Ashford-Harper Edsel Motor Sales garage on North Mill street and all its contents.

The fire, discovered at 5:30 a. m., burned the structure to the ground and destroyed six new and three used automobiles.

Savee by spectacular work by the Carrier Mills fire department were the Townes Chevrolet buildings, which join the Edsel building at the rear and at the south side.

Fire Chief L. G. Martin said the Carrier Mills fire fighters gave aid of utmost value to the Harrisburg department.

"If it hadn't been for them, the Townes building would have burned," said Frank Patterson, veteran member of the Harrisburg department.

Chief Martin estimated the damage at around $75,000 or $80,000 and said he believed the fire started from faulty wiring between the ceiling and roof.

It was learned that the losses were partially insured.

The fire was first spotted by Ulysses Sutton, who drove to the fire department a short block away to report it. Night Patrolman Floyd Kimbro, in the squad car, saw it seconds later and called Henry C. Dempsey, employed at the garage.

"The place was full of smoke and there were auto horns blowing inside when I drove up," Kimbro said.

Eldorado Department Stands By

Kimbro also called the Carrier Mills department, and he said the truck and seven men were on the local scene in 15 minutes, ready to go. With the two Harrisburg trucks connected at plugs at Mill and Locust and Mill and Walnut, the Carrier Mills truck connected at Mill and Poplar, Harrisburg Chief Martin then put the Carrier Mills boys on the job of preventing its spread to the two Townes buildings, the main one owned by the estate of the late Dr. Green of Johnston City, and the one on Mill street owned by Robert Mugge, while the locals concentrated on the Edsel building, owned by Fred Harper, one of the partners.

The Eldorado department was called to stand by at the Harrisburg fire station.

Fire Chief Martin said that when the local firemen arrived, he and Frank Patterson went into every part of the smoke-filled building, looking for the blaze, but couldn't find it. In a matter of seconds after they got outside flames burst out of the roof, he stated.

The one-story building, 65 by 240 feet in dimensions, was made of tile block, sided with wood.

Mr. Dempsey listed the following automobiles as lost in the blaze: Five new Edsels including one belonging to Charles Duncan, an Edsel salesman; one new De Soto; a 1956 Plymouth; a 1951 Plymouth and a used Jeep, all belonging to the company.

Saved were four new automob-

Our Poor Education

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT
Warnings have come from many quarters that America must be careful, in stepping up its education programs to offset the Russian scientific breakthrough, that it does not try to turn out science robots.

What many keen-minded educators are concerned about is that we shall produce trained individuals who, while having a sharply developed scientific bent, shall above all be rounded human beings.

This means that they should bring to their work the insight and perspective of men who grasp values and have a steady awareness of the political, economic and social frame within which they labor.

To some Americans, the placing of this emphasis may suggest that we are already doing a good job
of keeping human values and the broad perspective of affairs uppermost—that the danger is that science may narrow and limit our focus.

The truth seems to be otherwise.
Many educators feel, for one thing,
that the scientists and engineers
we train tend too often to be specialists set in a kind of social vacuum, unable to see beyond the end of their slide rule.

But there is a worse aspect.
The uncomfortable fact is that, as we lag in science, we don't really do
a very good job in the humanities and social sciences, either.

It's an old story now, but it is still the story, that students at both the college and high school levels
often test poorly in fundamentals
like history, politics, economics and geography.

As for art, philosophy and the study of religions, there seems to be even less grasp of these.

Education in America appears to be hitting merely a glancing blow in all too many cases. And arguments continue to rage as to the extent to which the students,
the teachers, and the educational system are to blame.

We all know we have long suffered a shortage of teachers and that many we have are poorly trained or ill suited to the work.
We know, too, that with the countless bright distractions of today
many students look in school for the paths of least resistance.

Those who assail the system say
it allows the student too much freedom to select easy courses, puts too much stress on practical
"how to" studies which an individual can as well learn for himself
in other ways, and devotes too much time to "life adjustment"— getting along with other students,
the teacher, etc.

However the blame should fall,
the point would seem to be that it should fall somewhere. No matter what the Russians do or don't do, we need better education, and

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:

USA Would Probable Lose War To Russia Right Now; Secret Report To White House Shows We Have Maginot Line In Turkey And Europe; Administration Sugarcoats The Alarming Facts.

(Editor's Note—Drew Pearson today continues his penetrating diagnosis of Washington defenses and our lag on missiles and satellites.)

WASHINGTON.—The secret report on American defenses parts of which have leaked to the press, is far more alarming than the leaks indicate. One clue to its alarming content is the fact that the White House wanted only two copies—the original and one carbon-made. It did not want other copies in existence which might show Congress how weak our defenses are.

For the depressing, inescapable deductions from this report are that the United States today has become a second-class power.

In brief, Russia could launch war on us at any time with almost certain odds of turning the United States into a socialist, satellite, subject nation.

This is not pleasant news to publish. However, the United States has come through some rough times in the past, dating back to the grim, bleak winters when the Pilgrim fathers battled famine, cold, and Indians. And if the American people really understand the unadulterated, unsugarcoated truth regarding what faces them today, I am confident they will be equal to the occasion.

But they have to know the facts.

TRUTH WAS SUPPRESSED

The secret report which has caused such worried reverberations in high administration circles was prepared by members of the "Arden Farms" study group, a body of top businessmen, scientists, and economists in New York who began making studies in government when Eisenhower was president of Columbia university. Over 100 of them worked on this report for the Office of Defense Administration, and it is actually a composite document which goes a better educational product, than we get today.

into many different facets of our defense.

Real fact is that the report should send no tremors of alarm through the administration, because all the facts in it were known not only to the Pentagon, but to newsmen who took the trouble to dig into the defense picture. If the facts were not known to the White House, then it was because the White House was not sufficiently interested.

The secret report warns:

That Russia is ahead of us in all phases of modern warfare except atomic submarines;

That our forward strategic air command bases could be knocked out by Russian missiles;

That the United States could be devastated by a mass Soviet attack;

That we would be lucky to destroy five or six Soviet cities in retaliation.

In brief, the United States would lose a war with Russia.

NO FOOD AFTER 20 DAYS

Further depressing facts include:

The United States would have food for only 20 days in case of Russian mass attack, because food is located in the great grain elevators and warehouses of the big cities. These cities would be wiped out first.

With strict rationing, the American people could get by on a low, 1,800-calorie subsistence diet. But no rationing cards have been printed, and it would take four months in time of war to print them. The war might be over before then.

Most shocking revelation is that which shows our much-publicized forward SAC bases to be another "Maginot Line." Actually this is no revelation at all. Top officials have known for months that these strategic air command bases in Turkey, Japan, most of Europe, were just as impotent as the huge wall of steel and concrete, the Maginot Line, behind which France basked in self-satisfied complacency prior to Hitler's attack.

However, the administration has deliberately gone out of its way to fool the public regarding the defense picture.

SUBSTITUTE NOSE CONE

When the President went on the air with his first "chins-up" telecast, he dramatically exhibited the nose cone of a Jupiter rocket, which he said had returned to the earth, thereby solving the question of re-entry through the atmosphere.

The Air Force scientific brain center in California, Ramo-Woolridge, has now written a report branding this a hoax.

The nose cone which like showed on television, according to the Air Force report, was not a test of re-entry at all. For this particular nose cone, the Air Force memo says, re-entered the atmosphere at a cockeyed angle which slowed it down; also rotated, which slowed it even more. Thus it landed at less than one-third the speed of a normal ballistic missile.

The test, therefore, concluded the Ramo-Woolridge memo, was of "negligible" value. Yet the President demonstrated the nose cone to the American public as a proof that it had solved the re-entry problem.

All the above facts were known to the Defense Department at the time the missile was sent to the White House for the President's telecast. The question of whether like should show the nose cone was debated back and forth in advance at the Pentagon.

It was finally argued that,

Farm Income Higher, But Costs Jump

WASHINGTON — Farmers were caught on the horns of inflation during the month ended Nov. 15. Their commodities brought more but their expenses hit an all-time high.

As a result, they broke about even on the cost-price rise and the farm parity ratio remained fixed at 81 per cent — the same as the previous month and a year ago.

Parity is the price needed to put commodities sold by farmers on a par with the cost of things they must buy—theoretically a fair return for their products.

Farmers' costs — for commodities, services, interest, taxes and farm wages—jumped seven-tenths of 1 per cent for the month to a record high, according to the Agriculture Department's monthly price report.

The report indicated farm costs rose 3 per cent over the past 12 months. This increase matched the rise in prices farmers received for crops and livestock over the same period.

The prices farmers got for their commodities rose eight-tenths of 1 per cent during the month ended Nov. 15. The increase was paced by higher prices for meat animals, vegetables, poultry and eggs. This was partly offset by decreases in prices for cotton, feed, grains and tobacco.

Any additional buying power farmers achieved by virtue of higher prices received, however, was nullified by the higher cost of production and living. In short, the farmer got more, but he had to spend more.

The department said the increase in farm expenses was caused by a general rise in retail prices. Except for building materials, prices paid for every category of items bought by farmers for family living purposes rose during the month. The largest advances were recorded for new automobiles and clothing, but retail prices of household furnishings also rose moderately from mid-October.

Average hog prices for the month were $16.70 per hundredweight compared with $16.90 in mid-October and $14.30 a year ago. Average beef cattle prices were $17.80 per hundredweight, compared with $17.30 a month ago and $14.50 a year ago.

though this particular nose cone was not a test, another Jupiter nose cone had been witnessed coming down, although it was not recovered. Therefore, it would not be deceiving the public, officials felt, if a substitute nose cone was used.

Actually, the presentation of a nose cone as a brand-new triumphant achievement was deceptive in the first place. For last May, an experimental X-17 3-stage rocket was fired 650 miles straight up at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., and the nose cone recovered intact.

These are some of the problems a confused public faces in trying to figure out just where we stand and why publication of the secret report on USA vs. USSR military strength is so important.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for City Commissioner. Many friends and acquaintances have come to me and asked me to run.

I would like to make it clear that I have made no commitments to any individual or group of individuals other than to serve the City of Harrisburg to the best of my ability, and I intend to make no such commitments at any time.

If I am elected and chosen to be finance commissioner, I will insist on an audit before I take the office, and I will also insist on this audit being published in the Daily Register. Furthermore, I will insist on an income and expense report being published regularly in the Daily Register.

The salary for this office is $33.00 per month. I am willing to serve the City of Harrisburg for this amount but I cannot justify spending a lot of money to get elected, so if you do not see as many ads as you may expect, this will explain why.

I will appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

LEE MORSE

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Bargains are piled on tables for people to sort out the particular items which appeal to their fancy. When a sale takes place, people scramble to obtain the best material, the most attractive patterns, the choice quality and the lowest prices. The more scramble for merchandise on sale sometimes develops into a riot. Occasionally people are injured. Many people become wrought up emotionally.

In the heat of struggling for the best buy, we often purchase items which we do not need. We frequently discover that we have become the owners of merchandise which we did not want at all. Yet in the heat of enthusiasm, we had pleasure. We are not particularly critical of ourselves because we know that we shall repeat our actions at another sale.

When peace and salvation are offered to us at prices less than the price of confusion, riot, emotional uproar, we pass by without noticing the spiritual bargains offered by God. Let us open our eyes and observe the merchandise of God's love.

COME TO MY WEDDING
Bride is a stranger in your city and she would be delighted if you would attend as a friend of the bride on her wedding day, which takes place at 3 p. m. Saturday November 16th at Calvary Armenian Congregational Church at 38th Ave. and Irving.

ADVERTISING PAYS—The classified ad (top) placed in a San Francisco newspaper, ended the fears of Joyce Lunde that her wedding in a strange town might be a lonely affair. Some 70 well-wishers responded to the plea and attended the ceremony at Calvary Armenian Congregational Church. Below, some of them are shown waving to the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Andre Bijuklian, after the wedding.

Margaret Truman to Sing on Big Record

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK —The channel swim...

Margaret Truman, NBC-TV property, has a singing date with CBS-TV's "Big Record"—the date is Dec. 18... "Let's Face It," a show that was supposed to replace "Strike It Rich" on CBS-TV in January, now has been replaced itself—"Dotto," an audience participation affair, is the new pinch hitter.

NBC-TV wants "Sally" to leave its alley—the network feels the low ratings of the Joan Caulfield show are hurting the ratings of Steve Allen who follows "Sally" on Sundays... Edward Bennett Williams, lawyer for such characters as Frank Costello, is scheduled for a Mike Wallace ABC-TV interview Dec. 14.

Joke: There are so many westerns on TV nowadays that viewers are beginning to get saddle-pated. Unjoke.

Guy Mitchell's ABC-TV sponsor has told the network he'd like a show that would be beamed more at a female audience... Phil Silvers took his flu and his wife to Orlando and Miami Beach, Fla., for a six-week vacation.

NBC-TV is juggling its schedule: A nighttime version of "Truth or Consequences" will move into the "Mark Saber" spot which will move to the "Outlook" spot which will move to the "My Friend Flicka" spot which will move to the "Amateur Hour" spot which will move to oblivion.

Walt Disney's Dec. 4 "Disneyland" entry, "Mars and Beyond" will be the most expensive show in the history of ABC-TV—It cost Disney $400,000. He expects to recoup on reruns and possible theatre showings.

Bob Taylor on TV

If ABC-TV moves its "American Bandstand" show to a Saturday night slot, it will shift "West Point Story" from its Tuesday slot into the vacant "Bandstand" spot... MGM has given permission to Robert Taylor to play his first dramatic role on TV—Taylor reports for a "Thin

Errol Flynn Files $250,000 Suit

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Film star Errol Flynn has filed a $250,000 damage suit for false arrest, charging his reputation was damaged when he was taken into custody on a drunk charge Oct. 19.

Flynn was cleared of the charges last week after the city attorney's office notified municipal court the evidence against him was insufficient for conviction.

Flynn and his companion, Irish-born actress Maura FitzGibbons were arrested by policeman William Friedman at the Screen Publicists' Ball when they took his badge for a joke and refused to return it. Flynn's suit was directed against Friedman and the Riviera Country Club where the ball was held.

Little Schools Close

COLUMBUS, Ohio AP—The "little red schoolhouse" may become virtually extinct in Ohio by the end of 1957. E. E. Holt, state superintendent of public instruction, said 25 of the one-room schools have closed this year. Fifty-seven are still in operation in 11 of the 88 counties.

Man" episode, "The Scene Stealer" next week.

And Lisa Kirk, taking note of all their oat-burners on TV, wonders if sponsors really know their oats. Also unjoke.

Sewing Club Members Reminisce On "From Brides to Grandmothers"

Mrs. O. L. Baker, former Harrisburg resident, returned to her Decatur home today from a visit with her brother, Kenneth Berry, and other Harrisburg relatives and friends with whom she has visited since Wednesday. She stayed with Mrs. Ada Reese, 113 West Locust street, Saturday and Sunday and on Saturday afternoon they had a most unusual party.

Members of their sewing club, organized in Mrs. Reese's home in 1914, were invited to her home on Saturday afternoon. At the time of the club's organization, the members were all young brides. They were mainly interested Saturday afternoon in showing pictures and reciting the virtues of their respective grandchildren.

Matter of FACT

The love for perfume is probably as old as the human race. Vases containing oily pastes, still faintly fragrant, have been found in Egyptian tombs 5,000 years old. Frankincense and myrrh were brought by the Magi to the Babe of Bethlehem. The word perfume comes from the Latin word fumus, meaning smoke, indicating that the earliest way of making a pleasant odor was by burning these odorous woods, gums and leaves.

Sukarno Escapes Assassins' Bombs In Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Security agents pressed an island-wide manhunt today for the terrorists whose bombs killed nine persons and wounded 155 others in the attempted assassination of President Sukarno. Sukarno was not hurt.

At the same time, the Indonesian government carried out threatened retaliatory measures against the Dutch for the refusal of The Netherlands to surrender the Dutch-held territory of West Irian—also known as Dutch New Guinea.

Sukarno himself escaped uninjured in the attempt on his life Saturday night at the Tikini elementary school. He called on the nation to remain calm in a nationwide broadcast and then sped out of Jakarta under armed escort, apparently for the summer presidential palace at Bogor.

Sukarno had gone to the school with two of his children who attend classes there for ceremonies in connection with the third anniversary of its opening.

A crowd estimated in the hundreds passed around Sukarno as he left the building. Suddenly, the gunshot rang out—it was believed to be the signal for the bomb throwers.

Four grenades arched through the air in quick succession to explode into the suddenly panicked crowd. Shrapnel ripped through the densely packed crowd.

Sukarno, an avowed neutralist, has been pushing a program for what he termed "a guided democracy," which would bring the Communists into the government in an advisory capacity. The move has met with strong criticisms from the strong Moslem parties.

Two Roadblocks in Path Of Any Effort to Change U. S. Education System

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP)—Two major obstacles lie in the path of any effort to tighten up U. S. high school curriculums to meet the challenge of Russia's heavy emphasis on science and math.

Educators and public officials agree that these obstacles can be removed only by radically changed American attitudes.

One roadblock is the insistent desire of many American parents for a wide variety of training courses which, while admittedly desirable, were never a part of formal education.

These include teaching youths to drive safely, to cook and sew, to make social "adjustments," and to develop proficiency in various vocational skills or hobbies.

A High Proportion

Few parents apparently realize how large a proportion of school time is now devoted to such "courses." A recent study in a suburban high school that is widely regarded as one of the nation's best showed only 70 per cent of its teaching time devoted to academic subjects. In many high schools, it is less than 50 per cent.

The other big obstacle to higher education standards is the American belief that every child should be compelled to attend school until he is 16 or 18 years old, regardless of his desire or aptitude for scholastic learning.

Several educators dare to criticize our compulsory education laws publicly. It is like attacking home and mother. But most of them privately assert that U. S. public schools have little choice but to offer a lot of easy electives and "practical arts" courses as long as they are required to go through the motions of giving every child a high school "education."

A Big City Problem

This problem is particularly acute in big cities, where private schools and the flight to the suburbs have drained off many of the brightest students, and have left public high schools with very high percentages of students who have neither the ambition nor ability to study mathematics, science nor any other difficult subject.

Should these children be shunted into vocational training for which they may also lack aptitude?

The Daily Register, Harrisburg, Illinois
Monday, December 2, 1957

Page Five

Should they be allowed to quit school and hunt for jobs which are often very hard for an adolescent to find? Or should they be turned loose on the streets to swell the juvenile delinquency statistics?

Groping for a solution, some city school systems recently have adopted what they call the "multiple-track curriculum plan." This is a device for segregating high school students into several groups according to their learning ability, and giving each group a different program of studies.

Matter of FACT

Long before written history began, man had invented gambling games in which dice were used. Six-sided cubes of ivory, bone, wood or metal have been found in the ancient tombs of Egypt, India and the Far East. They were common in the earliest days of Greece and Rome. Northern barbarians sometimes used them to gamble away their liberty. The dice used today are very similar to those used in ancient times, although the markings and size are different.

Eight Children Die in Fire

SHERBROOKE, Que. (AP)—Firemen today believed a faulty oil stove triggered the inferno which engulfed an eight-room frame house Sunday, burning to death eight young children.

The fire apparently started shortly after Mrs. Marie-Ange Denault, 32, had left for 7:30 a. m. Mass with her 13-year-old son Robert, leaving the other eight children with their sleeping father. Mrs. Denault had turned up the stove at her husband Lionel's request shortly before leaving the house.

Denault, 38-year-old pulp and paper worker, suffered third degree burns and cuts in trying to save the children. He had two of them in his arms at one point, but he was so badly burned they managed to wriggle loose in their panic. Denault escaped through a ground floor window.

Mrs. Denault knew nothing of the tragedy until she and her son returned from church to see the one-and-a-half story building blazing.

$50,000 Bull Dies at Live Stock Exposition

CHICAGO (AP)—A $50,000 bull died during the night at the International Live Stock Exposition.

The animal was owned by the J. Garrett Tolan Farms, Pleasant Plains, Ill.

Eileenmere 1425, three-time champion Aberdeen-Angus, died despite oxygen and antibiotics that at first appeared to help. The fatal ailment appeared to be pneumonia.

In 1955, a bull the farms valued at $35,000 perished from a similar disease after being brought to the show.

Eileenmere 1425, a 3 year old, won its three championships at the Illinois State Fair at Springfield.

A. H. Spitzer, co-owner of the Tolan Farms, said that two offers of $50,000 had been turned down for the bull.

552 Killed in Traffic Mishaps Over Holiday

By United Press
Traffic accidents killed 552 persons during the four-day Thanksgiving weekend, a final count showed today.

The National Safety Council said the total topped the "normal" figure of 500 deaths for a four-day non-holiday period at this time of year.

The United Press counted 552 persons killed in traffic from 6 p. m. Wednesday to midnight Sunday. Plane crashes killed 9 persons and 128 were killed in miscellaneous accidents for an overall total of 689.

California led all other states with 60 traffic deaths. Ohio was second with 57. New York had 28, Michigan 27, Arkansas 25, Illinois 22 and Florida 21.

New Hampshire and the District of Columbia had no fatalities.

The council said November is one of the worst months for traffic accidents because of bad weather and early darkness.

The worst single accident of the holiday killed nine persons Saturday night in a high-speed two-car collision near Nogales, Ariz. Six of the victims were airmen from Davis-Monthan Air Force base at Tucson, Ariz.

11-Year-Old Twin Sisters Drown

ANTIOCH, Ill. (AP)—Eleven-year-old twin sisters drowned Sunday while playing on thin ice at Grass Lake despite the efforts of their father to save them.

Dead were Mary Jane and Hazel Jean Beaman. Their bodies were recovered about 30 feet from shore.

A neighbor boy who saw the girls plunge into the water summoned their father, Samuel, 44, a construction worker. He rushed out onto the ice and jumped into the water. He managed to clutch one of the girls' snowsuits, but it slipped from his grasp.

A passerby, Fred Mitchell, threw a rope to Beaman and pulled him ashore.

Fire Destroys Ashford-Harper Garage

biles parked in the front of the building, which were pulled across the street with a wrecker. They were three Edsels and a Chrysler.

Charles Townes of Townes Chevrolet said that an area of about 60 by 20 feet at the rear of his main building burned, and the roof and wall falling in. Inside this part of the structure, he said, were axles, tailpipes, mufflers and other equipment. Carpenters were getting busy sealing off this small area from the rest of the garage.

Mr. Townes said that about 55 cars were moved away from the fire scene by his workers and volunteers. Some were new and some were used. He said that ten were moved out of the building adjacent to the Edsel company, ten from the main building, and about 35 from the Townes used car lot at Mill and Locust, between the buildings.

Mr. Townes also had moved out all his office equipment. The site where the fire occurred was an old landmark in Harrisburg. Older residents recalled that there was a mule barn many years ago belonging to Eli Mofield.

Mr. Harper operated the Chrysler-Plymouth agency at the scene from 1935 until a few months ago, when he joined with Russell Ashford as Edsel dealers for this territory. The garage had its formal opening as Edsel sales agency on Sept. 4.

Film Starlet Simone Silva Dies After Stroke

LONDON (AP)—Bosomy film starlet Simone Silva, who was found dead in her apartment here Saturday, died following a stroke, according to a medical report issued today. Friends said Miss Silva, 28, had impaired her health by heavy dieting. She made a bid for fame in 1954 by stripping to the waist to pose for pictures with actor Robert Mitchum at the Cannes Film Festival.

Arrested In Car Stolen Here

Fred Ingram of Harrisburg was arrested yesterday at Mound City and charged with driving while intoxicated and carrying a concealed weapon. Chief of Police Ross Lane said he was informed last night. Ingram was in a car reported stolen from the Ewell Winkelman residence.

Tavern Owner Collects Dime a Word for 'Cussing'

CHEVE COEUR, Ill. (AP)—Any customer who "cusses" in Clovis Giovannetto's tavern has to contribute to a fund for a new Catholic school here at the rate of 10 cents per cuss word.

Giovannetto said he had become alarmed recently at the flow of profanity used by his customers, particularly so close to the Christmas season.

So he posted a sign over his bar reading "No vulgar language allowed. Ten cents a word."

Business has been booming, Giovannetto said, but he did not report how much he has collected.

The first collections already have been turned over to the Rev. J. D. Shaughnessy, pastor of the Sacre Coeur parish here, to be used in the church's building fund.

Giovannetto said, "Things had been getting out of hand, so we started collecting a dime a word. The first day we just went down the bar and took a dime from each customer. It helped."

Moscow Claims Rocket Still Up; Doubt by West

LONDON (AP)—Russia said today the rocket that carried the Soviet's first earth satellite into space is still spinning around the world.

But Western scientists said it was scheduled to drop into the earth's atmosphere last weekend, and probably did.

Moscow Radio this morning said the rocket had made 894 circuits around the earth at 10 p. m. e.s.t. Sunday. It predicted the rocket could be seen before sunrise today between 10 and 55 degrees north.

Moscow's claim was met with skepticism by Western observers whose attempts to track the rocket during the weekend met with little success.

American scientists at the Cambridge, Mass., moon-watching station believed the rocket crashed to earth Saturday night.

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The first 1958 Illinois automobile license plates went on sale today, with a handful of hardy individuals showing up at 4 a. m. to get in line to buy the new plates.

The 1958 license plates, purple and white—the Northwestern University colors—have to be in use no later than Feb. 15. Mail applications must arrive at Springfield by Feb. 1.

C. E. Nelson, chief of the automobile registration division of the secretary of state's office, said the early morning business was brisk. More than 100 persons were in line to buy the plates at mid-morning. Over the counter and mail sales of plates also began in Chicago.

Nelson said the first mail order sales of new plates already have been sent out. Regular mail sales began immediately after the mailing of license plates which were reassigned to motorists who held their same numbers over from last year by special application.

News from the State Capital

Governor William G. Stratton said that for the sixth consecutive month overall public assistance loads in September decreased and for the first time this year all five programs shared in the decline.

If groans of "I feel so stuffed" are heard following Thanksgiving dinner at state Department of Public Welfare hospitals and schools, they may well be credited to the consumption of 14 tons of roast turkey and all the trimmings.

The 50,000 residents and 6,000 employees will consume 1,700 gallons of fruit cocktail or tomato juice, 5 1/2 tons of sage dressing, 1,350 gallons of gravy, 1 1/2 tons of sweet potatoes, 5 tons of cranberry sauce, 2 tons of celery and 560 gallons of olives, 2 1/2 tons of bread or 4,667 dozens of rolls, 3-4 tons of butter, 9,400 pumpkin pies.

The king-size meal will be sluiced down with 3,120 gallons each of milk and coffee.

The booming Illinois turkey industry is producing another record year in 1957, the state Department of Agriculture announced. According to the department's Division of Agricultural Statistics, turkeys being raised in the state this year total more than one and one-quarter million, ten per cent more than 1956. The national increase is only five per cent.

Despite the upswing in turkey business, Chief Statistician Joseph Ewing said that about 71 per cent of the gobblers that adorn Thanksgiving dinner tables throughout the state will be "foreigners" or not home grown. Ewing said that approximately 55 million pounds of turkey will be required to satisfy the tastes of Illinoisans this year. The state output was approximately 16 million pounds, fresh dressed in 1956. Every man, woman and child in the country will eat an average of about 5.6 pounds in 1957, he said.

Statistics show that the birds were a "food luxury" around 1930 with the average American consuming less than a pound and a half annually.

Water will boil at a lower temperature on a mountain than at sea level.

Bull Dogs Trip Eldorado for Second Victory

Pavelonis With 30 Points Sets School Record In 68-47 Win Over Eagles

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, aided by a record-breaking performance from Bob Pavelonis, beat the Eldorado Eagles, 68 to 47, Saturday night to give them a 2-0 mark for the young basketball season.

Pavelonis, junior guard, broke the Harrisburg high school scoring record when he made 30 points against the Eagles. The old high was 27 made by David Anglin against Eldorado in 1954.

This week the locals, after playing their first two games in Daventport gym, take to the road, meeting Marion in a South Seven conference opener Friday night and travelling to Carrier Mills the following evening.

With Eldorado using a tight zone defense which made it difficult for the locals to get the ball into the pivot, Pavelonis was having a field night with his shot from 16 to 18 feet back. He connected with nine field goals and made all 12 of his free throw attempts in collecting his 30 points.

About as big a factor in the win was the playing of Ronnie Maynard, junior center, who did a great job under the offensive boards and had nine field goals for 18 points. The scoring of Maynard and Pavelonis was more than the Eldorado total.

Harrisburg Coach John Dotson used the same starting lineup that he employed against Carterville Friday night, when Harrisburg won, 67 to 56: Ray Hassett and Kinch Jones at forwards, Maynard at center and Pavelonis and Gary Stricklin at guards. However, his entire squad saw considerable action in the Saturday night affair, as the locals held a 27-point lead over Eldorado at the start of the final frame.

Mendel Wins Chicago City Grid Championship

CHICAGO — Mendel Catholic won the Chicago City Prep Football Championship, beating Calumet, 6-0, in one of the most exciting games in prep grid history Saturday.

With two seconds left, Mendel quarterback Jim Brennan completed a 41-yard pass to end Jim Gallagher, who fell into the end zone for the winning touchdown.

The Catholic League champs failed to convert, but it didn't matter. The TD was the climax to a battle that had been waged on almost even terms with Calumet, the Public League titlist.

Stan Hack, Bride Honeymoon in Florida

ROCKFORD, Ill. — Former Chicago Cub Manager Stan Hack and the former Glenn "Doc" Rochelle, Ill., began a Florida honeymoon today.

They were married in a quiet civil ceremony Saturday by Probate Judge Seely P. Forbes. Only the bride's close relatives attended the wedding in Hack's home.

Hack and his bride plan to drive to St. Petersburg, Fla., this week. They have rented a home at Treasure Island and will remain there until the St. Louis Cardinals arrive in Florida for spring training.

Hack recently signed a Cardinal coaching contract.

Ohio State and Navy Biggest Bowl Favorites; Middies Blank Army, 14-0

By United Press
Ohio State's newly-crowned National Champions and Navy's latest "team of desire" emerged as the biggest favorites today in the "early line" for college football's bowl games.

The Buckeyes are picked to defeat Oregon by at least 15 points in the Rose Bowl while Navy is a 12-point choice over Rice for their Cotton Bowl encounter.

Oklahoma's dethroned national champions, generally rated at least three touchdowns better than their opponents on any given Saturday, are "only" a 10-point pick over Duke in the Orange Bowl.

The Sugar and Gator Bowl games shape up as the closest struggles, at least in the minds of the Broadway oddsmakers. They are quoting Mississippi as a three-point favorite over Texas in Sugar Bowl and list Texas A&M

Shannon Sets New Rushing Mark for SIU

CARBONDALE, Ill.—Despite the fact that he missed one game completely and saw only limited service in some others, Carver Shannon, Southern Illinois University right halfback, set a new individual season rushing mark for the Salukis.

Playing in only eight games, he netted 723 yards in 88 carries—an average of 8.2 yards per try. He also set new all-time single game rushing and scoring records as he picked up 249 yards in nine carries (an average of more than 27 yards per try) and scored 32 points as SIU tripped Great Lakes, 38-14, in the season finale last Saturday.

Last year Shannon, who is only a junior, gained 694 yards in 99 carries and scored 90 points—an all-time SIU scoring record.

By defeating Great Lakes, SIU finished the season with a 5-4 mark

Dawkins Elected Army Grid Captain

WEST POINT, N. Y. — Halfback Pete Dawkins of Royal Oak, Mich., has been elected captain of Army's 1958 football team. He is the first halfback to hold the honor since Glenn Davis shared the team captaincy with Doc Blanchard in 1946.

— the Salukis' best grid record since 1947.

Second best ground-gainer for the Salukis this year was fullback Charles Hamilton, Herrin, who gained 345 yards in 71 carries. Hamilton also was the leading punter with 543 yards in 16 punts—an average of 34 yards.

Quarterback Bill Norwood, Centralia, paced the Salukis in passing with 26 pass completions in 62 attempts for a net gain of 341 yards. Cecil Hart, halfback from Hillsboro, was the team's leading pass receiver with six catches good for 148 yards. Shannon was the top scorer with 82 points.

Best SIU team mark was in rushing with 2,138 yards in nine tilts—a per-game average of 237.5 yards.

Southern's prospects for next year appear fairly bright as only three players—captain and end Marion Rushing, Pinckneyville; fullback Paul Restivo, Herrin; and end Jack Lester, Abilene, Tex., will be lost by graduation.

HAND-PICKED for MURDER

Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

Copyright 1957 by Robert Martin

By Robert Martin

THE STORY: Private Investigator Jim Bennett's introduction to a prospective client, Hugo Howell, is a fight in a resort tavern. Jim, Howell and a man named Ambrose Lott, Howell's companion, are taken to police headquarters. Chief Campbell says he once worked for Jim's agency.

III

The chief motioned me to a chair beside a small desk and I sat down. He sat opposite me and clasped his thin fingers. "How did you get mixed up in this?" I told him briefly, and when I'd finished he laughed softly. "So Howell doesn't know yet that he's your client? Do you mind telling me what kind of a job it is?"

"I don't know the details," I said. "My secretary just told me that it involved Howell's son and a woman."

"Hm," the chief said, "one of those."

"Do you know anything about Howell or the man with him?"

He shook his head. "I never saw either of them before. We get a lot of strangers in here during the summer — this is a resort town."

"What about the girl? Is she a stranger, too?"

He smiled. "Honey is my daughter."

For a moment I couldn't think of anything to say. Then I said, "You've got a nice girl there."

Chief. She went to bat for me at the hotel."

"Honey's a good girl," he said seriously. "I don't know what I'd do without her. Her mother is an invalid—has been for years—and Honey helps take care of her and keeps house for me."

"I'm sorry to hear about your wife."

He sighed. "It's been—difficult. A series of expensive operations didn't help and she needs constant care. I provide a part time nurse for her—I can't expect Honey to sacrifice everything—but on my salary."

He paused and gave me a wry smile. "But I didn't mean to bore you with my personal problems. Since Howell is your client, I'll turn him loose—if you'll be responsible for him."

"Thanks, but let him sleep it off. I'll see him in the morning."

He nodded. "All right. I'll probably find him a little—I'm the mayor, too." Again he gave me his wry grin.

I got up and followed him out the door.

The pale man was still there,

talking to the chief's daughter.

He broke off when we appeared, came over to us, ignored me and said to the chief, "I'll be around in the morning. I'm sorry about Mr. Howell, but you know how it is."

He gave the chief a smile which barely cracked his bloated features. "When he's drinking, he's not well, responsible."

"Who are you?" the chief asked.

"My name is Ambrose Lott. I live in Detroit."

"Howell is a friend of yours?"

"Yes. In fact, I used to work for him. I'm here on a little vacation and just happened to run into him at the hotel."

He gave me a furtive sidelong look and went on. "Really, Chief, Mr. Howell is not entirely to blame for the disturbance this evening."

He pointed at me. "This man—"

"Never mind," the chief said, rather sharply. "I'll release your friend around 10 in the morning."

Lott hesitated a moment, his gaze shifting from the chief to me. "Okay," he said softly, and went out.

The girl said, "Something about that man gives me the creeps."

I smiled at her. "It seems that I couldn't have had a better witness than the police chief's daughter."

She flushed faintly beneath the tan. "So Dad told you?"

"Honey," the chief said, "Mr. Bennett is a celebrity. He's one of the best known private detectives in the state. I recognized him from a picture in the Cleveland papers."

"Really?" She raised her smooth brows. "An honest-to-goodness private eye?"

"Please," I said, smiling. "Private investigator."

A man came in from outside. He was a young man, not too tall, but stockily built, with thick black hair parted on the side. He was deeply tanned and glasses with thick amber frames gave him a studious look. His eyes were a clear blue and his chin was firm, almost stubborn, but his mouth held a soft, sensitive look. Something about his features was familiar to me, but I couldn't place it. He wore tan walking shorts, a white T-shirt and canvas crepe soled shoes.

He nodded to the chief's daughter, said seriously, "Hello, Honey," and turned to the chief. "Good evening, sir. I'm Wayne Howell. The bartender at the hotel told me my father was here. I wonder if I could see him?"

"Son," the chief said kindly, "I'm afraid your dad is a little—uh—under the weather this evening. Maybe you'd better wait until morning."

"I understand," young Howell said with a trace of bitterness. "I'm sorry if he caused any trouble."

"Nothing that a little fine won't fix up," the chief said cheerfully. I gazed at Wayne Howell and saw the resemblance to his father. Someday he would be fat like Hugo, but I hoped he would not inherit Hugo's drinking habits. Honey Campbell said, "Wayne, this is my father and—"

She nodded at me—"Mr. Bennett. Mr. Bennett is a private detective."

Honey said admiringly, and added hastily, "I mean investigator."

Ike Back At White House

Returns from Rest at Gettysburg Farm; to Preside at Cabinet Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower returned from a long weekend of rest on his Gettysburg farm today and went directly to his office to dictate a memorandum before presiding over a Cabinet meeting.

The President went to his office long enough to dictate the memo to his secretary, Mrs. Ann Whitman, then went to the living quarters of the White House for lunch and a nap before going to the Cabinet meeting.

This was the President's first visit to his office since last Monday afternoon when he complained of a "chill" and was sent to bed.

Illinois Will Be Battleground in '58, Alcorn Says

PEORIA, Ill. (UP)—National GOP Chairman Meade Alcorn today told Illinois Republicans opening a two-day "pattern for victory" conference here that their state will be "one of the important battlegrounds" of the 1958 congressional elections.

Alcorn, who will address the conference Tuesday, said in a message to the Republican State Central Committee that the goal of the GOP in Illinois next year not only will be to hold present Republican strength in the state congressional delegation "but to extend it markedly."

He said the "sorry record of the Democrat-controlled 85th Congress should provide added impetus to the drive for a Republican Congress in 1958."

Alcorn said "the Republican state administration under Gov. Stratton is providing the people of Illinois with excellent government. The 14 Republican members of Congress and Sen. Everett Dirksen have proud records of accomplishment in Washington."

"Seldom has there been more talk and less real accomplishment," he said, than in the Democratic 85th Congress. "Pressing national needs were shrugged off as Democrats played partisan politics and let urgent national interests go hang. Only 37 per cent of President Eisenhower's program was enacted, one of the most dismal records of all time."

Illinois, he said, will be one of the "important battlegrounds where voters will determine whether responsible Republican leadership shall replace Democratic political bickering."

Stratton will address the conference Monday night.

GOP State Chairman Stanley H. Guyer said about 500 persons were expected to attend the conference to lay the groundwork and set the issues for the 1958 state and congressional campaigns.

Worst Accident Near Cairo

26 Dead In Illinois Traffic Accidents

By United Press
At least 26 persons were killed in Illinois traffic accidents during the four-day Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

A two-car crash near Cairo Thanksgiving day killed four. The victims were Milton Davis, 50, and his wife, 56, Evanston, Ill.; James D. Heard, 48, Anna; and Ollie Harris, 45, Granite City.

A two-car crash six miles east of DeKalb Sunday night took the lives of Patricia Tufo, 18, and Philip Arthur Kosch, 19, both Northern Illinois University students. Four others were hurt.

Mrs. Claris Johnson, 41, Oak Lawn, died Sunday of injuries suffered Saturday in a two-car crash on Chicago's far South Side.

Irving Battenhouse, 64, Plainfield Township resident, died in a Joliet hospital Sunday night of injuries suffered in another two-car wreck four miles north of Plainfield.

Two Great Lakes sailors, Ted with what proved to be a mild stroke.

Eisenhower, grinning broadly, arrived at the White House at 11:11 a.m. c.s.t., after a motor trip of just under two hours from Gettysburg.

Riding in the same car with the President was White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty who said Eisenhower continues to make an "excellent" recovery.

Immediately after the President returned, Hagerty said he "definitely" would attend this afternoon's Cabinet meeting.

Hagerty said the President would attend the start of the meeting, but would not stay through the whole session. Cabinet meetings often last two hours or longer.

Mrs. Eisenhower, who went to Gettysburg with the President Friday, remained at the farm.

The President's personal physician, Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, rode two cars behind the President's limousine on the trip from Gettysburg.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower went to their farm Friday after spending Thanksgiving Day in Washington. Eisenhower relaxed there by frolicking with his four grandchildren, watching Saturday's Army-Navy football game on television and touring his farm.

Hagerty said the President "had a very good night's sleep again" Sunday.

He said Snyder's assessment of the President's condition this morning was that "progress continues to be excellent."

A. C. Dunham, 76, Dies While Visiting In Eldorado

Ambrose Clark Dunham, 76, resident of 2659 Alter rd., Detroit, Mich., died in the Ferrell hospital in Eldorado at 1:07 a. m. today. He is also survived by his brother, W. T. Dunham, and his sister, Mrs. Francis Mattingly, both of Eldorado.

The body will lie in state at the Bean and Tanner funeral home until the funeral.

Blinker Lights On At Routes 13-45

The blinker lights at the four-way stop at Routes 13-45 in East Harrisburg were blinking today. A clock device which was not working was repaired and the lights went on about 5:30 p. m. yesterday.

Fire Destroys Home of Attorney Lester Lightfoot

Atty. Lester Lightfoot lost his residence and all its contents in a fire early Saturday morning, it was learned today.

The Harrisburg attorney resided in a new, ranch-type house a mile and a half northwest of Galatia.

Mr. Lightfoot, whose law offices are in Harrisburg, said the fire occurred about 2:30 a. m. Saturday, presumably from the furnace. He said he heard a booming noise and soon the house was afire.

He was able to get nothing from the house. Also, he said, his pickup truck parked near the building was destroyed by flames.

The home was partially insured, he stated. He also said he hopes to rebuild on the site.

Stevenson Is Invited to White House Meeting

Will Attend Briefing For Congressional Leaders Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson has been invited to a White House-legislative meeting this week in a move to strengthen bipartisanship in foreign affairs.

The administration took the unprecedented step of calling Stevenson, titular head of the Democratic Party, to the briefing for Congressional leaders Tuesday on administration plans to beef up NATO against Russia's increasing challenge.

The State Department said Stevenson had been asked to take part in the session because he has been working on the NATO proposals in his role as administration consultant.

The former Illinois governor "has accepted" the invitation, it said.

There still was no word, however, on whether Stevenson would go to Paris later this month as part of the U. S. delegation to the "summit" meeting of North Atlantic Treaty nations calls to deal with Russia's missile scientific threat.

There was some chance the session might result in the first face-to-face meeting between President Eisenhower and Stevenson since Eisenhower defeated the latter for reelection.

Eisenhower plans to sit in on today's cabinet meeting to finalize proposals for Tuesday's legislative session, which he also hopes to attend if his doctors allow it.

Jenner Out of Senate Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Sen. William E. Jenner's surprise announcement that he will not seek reelection sent Indiana Republican leaders scurrying today to find a replacement.

The state's junior senator announced Saturday night that he would bow out of the 1958 senatorial race. Regarded as Indiana's best vote-getter, the outspoken rightwing foe of communism had been considered a sure candidate and probable victor.

Jenner's decision also stirred considerable activity in Democratic Party circles, and a scramble for the Democratic nomination seemed certain with the man they considered the top GOP candidate out of the race.

Jenner announced his decision in a brief letter to Indiana Republican Chairman Robert Matthews. He said he wanted to take up private law practice in Indianapolis rather than engage in a political battle for his seat in 1958.

'Bird Watchers' Gather for Imminent Launching of Rockets

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The "bird watchers society" of newsmen and photographers began gathering on the beaches in force today to check reports the guided missile test center would put on its biggest display of rocket launchings this week.

Unofficial reports indicated at least four missiles, including the Vanguard satellite-launcher rocket, were being readied on the launching pads.

The reports listed a Snark ready for firing Tuesday, the Vanguard Wednesday, an Atlas Thursday and a Thor on Friday. In the jargon of the missile center, such rockets are called "birds," and the corps of spectators "bird watchers."

The Snark, however, is not a rocket. It is a 5,000-mile range pilotless plane with a rocket booster for takeoff and a ramjet engine for flight. It has been tested successfully numerous times and is slated as the chief weapon for a new Air Force combat group.

The Vanguard is a 72-foot long three-stage rocket developed by the Navy. Reports indicated that scientists will attempt to put into orbit around the earth with the

Mrs. Barbara Wilhelm, who would have been 92 on Dec. 17, died in her Stonefort home Saturday morning. She is survived by her husband, Leo Wilhelm. The funeral was held in the Thornton funeral home in Stonefort at 2 p. m. today with Rev. George Smith officiating. Burial was in the Bolton cemetery.

Vanguard a test satellite measuring 6.4 inches in diameter and weighing almost four pounds.

Atlas May Be Delayed

Informed sources said the Atlas may not go off as scheduled on Thursday. There have been published reports from California, where the Atlas is manufactured by Convair, that the huge intercontinental ballistic missile was damaged during a hold-down test of its engines here last Wednesday.

The Atlas, developed here under an Air Force contract has been tested twice before and each time had to be destroyed at a comparatively low altitude because of malfunctioning of some of its parts.

The Thor is another Air Force ballistic missile in the intermediate range class. It was launched successfully for the first time only recently. The Thor is the Air Force counterpart of the Army's 3,000-mile Jupiter which also has been tested successfully here.

Fire Chief Sets Damage Around $75,000-$80,000

Credits Carrier Mills Firemen for Saving Townes Building

Fire this morning destroyed the Ashford-Harper Edsel Motor Sales garage on North Mill street and all its contents.

The fire, discovered at 5:30 a. m., burned the structure to the ground and destroyed six new and three used automobiles.

Savee by spectacular work by the Carrier Mills fire department were the Townes Chevrolet buildings, which join the Edsel building at the rear and at the south side.

Fire Chief L. G. Martin said the Carrier Mills fire fighters gave aid of utmost value to the Harrisburg department.

"If it hadn't been for them, the Townes building would have burned," said Frank Patterson, veteran member of the Harrisburg department.

Chief Martin estimated the damage at around $75,000 or $80,000 and said he believed the fire started from faulty wiring between the ceiling and roof.

It was learned that the losses were partially insured.

The fire was first spotted by Ulysses Sutton, who drove to the fire department a short block away to report it. Night Patrolman Floyd Kimbro, in the squad car, saw it seconds later and called Henry C. Dempsey, employed at the garage.

"The place was full of smoke and there were auto horns blowing inside when I drove up," Kimbro said.

Eldorado Department Stands By

Kimbro also called the Carrier Mills department, and he said the truck and seven men were on the local scene in 15 minutes, ready to go. With the two Harrisburg trucks connected at plugs at Mill and Locust and Mill and Walnut, the Carrier Mills truck connected at Mill and Poplar. Harrisburg Chief Martin then put the Carrier Mills boy on the job of preventing its spread to the two Townes buildings, the main one owned by the estate of the late Dr. Green of Johnston City, and the one on Mill street owned by Robert Mugge, while the locals concentrated on the Edsel building, owned by Fred Harper, one of the partners.

The Eldorado department was called to stand by at the Harrisburg fire station.

Fire Chief Martin said that when the local firemen arrived, he and Frank Patterson went into every part of the smoke-filled building, looking for the blaze, but couldn't find it. In a matter of seconds after they got outside flames burst out of the roof, he stated.

The one-story building, 65 by 240 feet in dimensions, was made of tile block, sided with wood.

Mr. Dempsey listed the following automobiles as lost in the blaze: Five new Edsels including one belonging to Charles Duncan, an Edsel salesman; one new De Soto; a 1956 Plymouth, a 1951 Plymouth and a used Jeep, all belonging to the company.

Saved were four new automobiles.

George C. McFadden, former president of Carmac Coal company until its sale in March of 1956, died in an Evanston hospital at 5:30 a. m. Sunday following an illness of two days. The illness was one of a series of heart attacks that had hospitalized him several times in the past months. Previous to his serving as president of Carmac coal company, Mr. McFadden was vice-president of the Peabody coal company and at the time of his death he was vice-president of the Paul Weir Co. of Chicago.

The body will lie in state in the Ryan Park funeral home at Park Ridge until the funeral services in the Park Ridge Community church at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday. Burial will be in a Danville cemetery about 2:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Charlie Sidwell, Grid Star, Dies In Auto Crash

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Charlie Sidwell, 1956 All-Southern Conference halfback for William and Mary, was killed Friday when his automobile plunged over a 10-foot embankment and smashed into a tree.

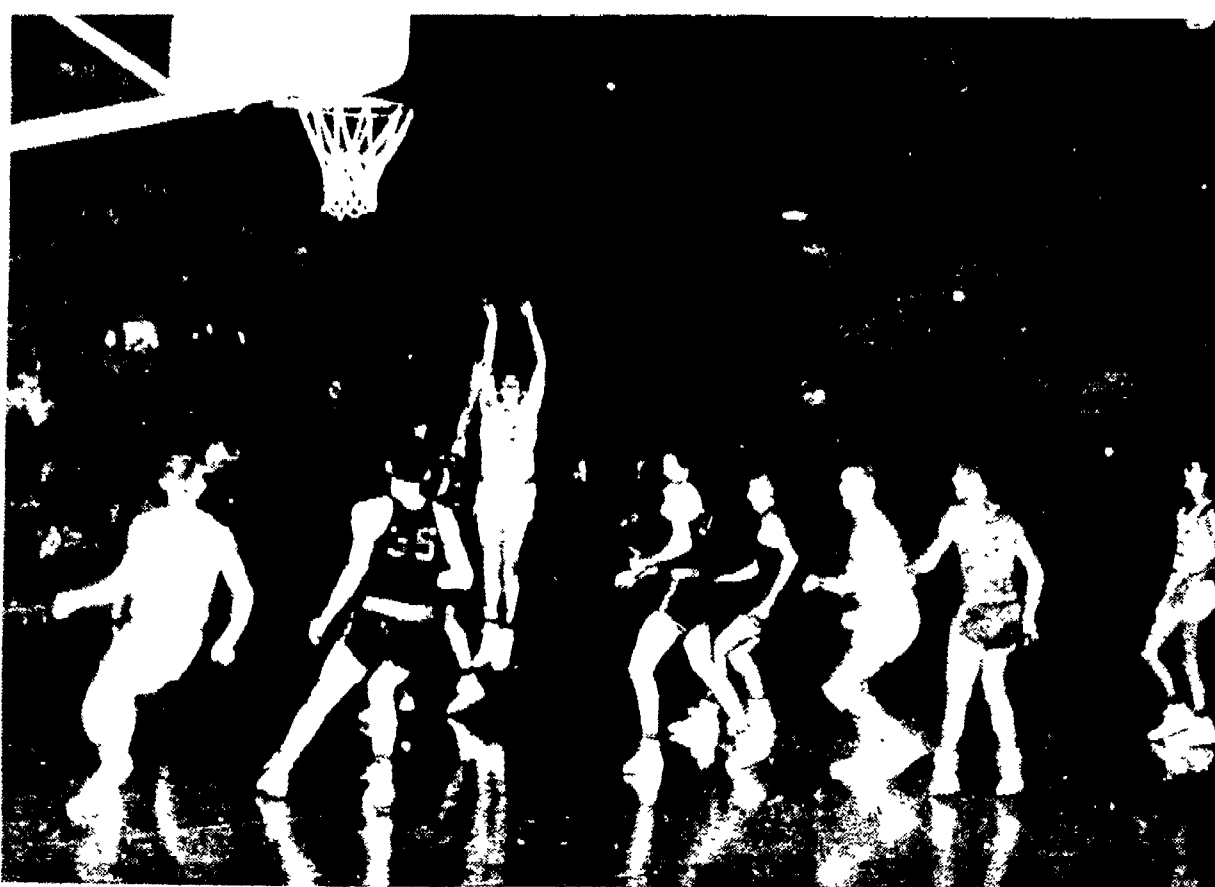

Police said Sidwell, a 25-year-old veteran of the Korean conflict, apparently fell asleep while driving alone on U. S. Route 60 six miles east of Richmond. Wrecker crews worked a half hour to free his body.

Sidwell quit college football early this month after playing seven games for William and Mary. He told coach Milt Drewier he had "lost his incentive" to play.

He then signed with the Cleveland Browns of the National Football League.

Last year Sidwell ranked third in the nation in kickoff returns and fifth in punt returns although he was hampered by a knee injury suffered while serving in Korea as a paratrooper.

Sidwell was a native of Portsmouth, Va. The Navy football team voted him the best back it played against in 1956.

Indict 8 in Cook County Scandal

CHICAGO (AP)—Former State Rep. Irving Meitee and seven other persons have been indicted in connection with a $4,223,158 scandal in the Cook County treasury.

The forgery, confidence game and conspiracy to defraud charges involve 27,000 pieces of Cook County real estate on which State's Atty. Benjamin S. Adamowski said titles are clouded.

Adamowski said he is looking into charges that penalties for tax delinquencies were reduced or ignored upon payment of bribes during the last 10 years. The probe covers the terms of the present County Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen, and his two predecessors, none of whom were accused of wrongdoing.

The jurors Friday extended their term for another 30 days so they could continue their inquiry.

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, 67-56 victors over Carterville here last night in the locals' opening game of the season, face Leonard Willis, Lester Feuquay and the rest of the Eldorado Eagles at Davenport gym tonight.

Paced by sophomore John Stone, who made 18 points, the Bull Dogs started pulling away from the Lions last night in the third quarter to roll to a conclusive victory.

Coach John Dotson's crew was fast and moved the ball well, and had good form in shooting over the Carterville zone, especially Stone, who was hitting from the side. A ragged defense was the worst thing about the Bull Dogs.

Lions Lead at Half

Dotson started Ray Hassett and Kinch Jones at forwards, Ron Maynard at center and Gary Stricklin and Bob Pavelonis at guards, with Stone seeing action much of the contest. Mike Woolcott was the only other man used as Dotson had to use his best because of the closeness of the ball game for the first three periods. Of these six, only Hassett and Jones are seniors.

Harrisburg made seven field goals to but two for Carterville in the first period, but eight Lion free throws kept them close at 15-12 at the end of the quarter. The Lions outscored the Bull Dogs, 22-14, the second frame and went into the dressing room at halftime leading 34-32.

Harrisburg's 18 points the third quarter to 10 for Carterville put the locals ahead 48-44 at the end of the period.

The Bull Pups looked good under the boards in the preliminary contest and beat the Carterville second team, 57-52. Three local freshmen, J. B. Henshaw with 13, Dale Robinson with 12 and Jim Lamb with 9, led the scoring. John Donovan had 6. Jerry Kane and Larry Wise each and Roger Aldridge 2. The Pups are coached by Chester Caddas.

A large crowd is expected to be on hand to see the rivalry renewed between Harrisburg and Eldorado. Locan fans are expressing their approval of the fast-moving game the Bull Dogs are playing.

Looking at Sports

BY BILL MELTON

"We can park 1,000 cars within a block of the gymnasium. Can anyone else do better," J. Ward Barnes, principal of the Eldorado Township high school, declared Wednesday.

Mr. Barnes was answering my question regarding parking of cars during basketball games.

Eldorado has just completed a fine, big gymnasium. Everyone highly praises the gymnasium, both for playing facilities and comforts for spectators. But everyone I talked with asked "Where will they park cars," and it sure seemed to be a fair, reasonable question.

But Mr. Barnes and ETHS authorities had been well aware of the need for parking and he came up with just as fair and reasonable answer.

The school owns a long lot just south of the gymnasium and only recently the house was razed and work is now in progress to make a parking lot there. The lot is being leveled and will be gravelled and chatted. "We believe 150 cars can be parked on this lot," Mr. Barnes said.

Then he pointed to a large area just east of the football field and north of the vocational building. This area is to be covered with gravel and chat within the next few days and next summer will be blacktopped. It is figured another 200 cars can be parked in this area.

Saline avenue, running along the west side of the gym, is an all-weather road and the area from the road to the gym will be gravelled as will the area on Main street on the east side. This will accommodate another 70 cars, 35 on each side.

And the parking plan used for the first time during the Harrisburg-Eldorado football game will be continued. This plan allowed near solid parking on Illinois avenue in the entire block on the west side of the football

Royals Down Pistons, 99-96

By United Press

The Cincinnati Royals now have a firm grip on second place in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association because the Detroit Pistons let a chance slip through their fingers.

The Royals downed the Pistons, 99-96, in overtime at Cincinnati Friday night when the Pistons ran out of gas in the extra period. Detroit had rallied from an 11-point deficit early in the fourth quarter to force the game into overtime.

Harry Gallatin sank a hook shot and two free throws in the last 90 seconds of regulation to force the tie and then started Detroit ahead in the overtime with a long shot.

But then the Pistons went scoreless for two minutes and 22 seconds and the Royals took command, clinching the win that put them 2 1-2 games ahead of Detroit.

Four games are on tap tonight with Syracuse at Boston, New York at Philadelphia, Cincinnati at Detroit, and St. Louis at Minneapolis.

Margaret Truman to Sing on Big Record

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (U)—The channel swim...

Margaret Truman, NBC-TV property, has a singing date with CBS-TV's "Big Record"—the date is Dec. 18. "Let's Face It," a show that was supposed to replace "Strike It Rich" on CBS-TV in January, now has been replaced itself—"Dotto," an audience participation affair, is the new pinch hitter.

NBC-TV wants "Sally" to leave its alley—the network feels the low ratings of the Joan Caulfield show are hurting the ratings of Steve Allen who follows "Sally" on Sundays. Edward Bennett Williams, lawyer for such characters as Frank Costello, is sked for a Mike Wallace ABC-TV interview Dec. 14.

Joke: There are so many westerns on TV nowadays that viewers are beginning to get saddle-pated. Unjoke.

Guy Mitchell's ABC-TV sponsor has told the network he'd like a show that would be beamed more at a female audience. Phil Silvers took his flu and his wife to Orlando and Miami Beach, Fla., for a six-week vacation.

Amateur Hour Doomed
NBC-TV is juggling its schedule: A nighttime version of "Truth or Consequences" will move into the "Mark Saber" spot which will move to the "Outlook" spot which will move to the "My Friend Flicka" spot which will move to the "Amateur Hour" spot which will move to oblivion.

Walt Disney's Dec. 4 "Disneyland" entry, "Mars and Beyond" will be the most expensive show in the history of ABC-TV—It cost Disney $400,000. He expects to recoup on reruns and possible theater showings.

Bob Taylor on TV
If ABC-TV moves its "American Bandstand" show to a Saturday night slot, it will shift "West Point Story" from its Tuesday niche into the vacant "Bandstand" spot. MGM has given permission to Robert Taylor to play his first dramatic role on TV—Taylor reports for a "Thin

Errol Flynn Files $250,000 Suit

HOLLYWOOD (U)—Film star Errol Flynn has filed a $250,000 damage suit for false arrest, charging his reputation was damaged when he was taken into custody on a drunk charge Oct. 19.

Flynn was cleared of the charges last week after the city attorney's office notified municipal court the evidence against him was insufficient for conviction.

Flynn and his companion, Irish-born actress Maura FitzGibbons were arrested by policeman William Friedman at the Screen Publicists' Ball when they took his badge for a joke and refused to return it. Flynn's suit was directed against Friedman and the Riviera Country Club where the ball was held.

Little Schools Close

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U)—The "little red schoolhouse" may become virtually extinct in Ohio by the end of 1957. E. E. Holt, state superintendent of public instruction, said 25 of the one-room schools have closed this year. Fifty-seven are still in operation in 11 of the 88 counties.

And Lisa Kirk, taking note of all their oat-burners on TV, wonders if sponsors really know their oats. Also unjoke.

Our Poor Education

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT
Warnings have come from many quarters that America must be careful, in stepping up its educational programs to offset the Russian scientific breakthrough, that it does not try to turn out science
robots.

What many keen-minded educators are concerned about is that we shall produce trained individuals who, while having a sharply developed scientific bent, shall
above all be rounded human beings.

This means that they should bring to their work the insight and perspective of men who grasp values and have a steady awareness
of the political, economic and social frame within which they labor.

To some Americans, the placing
of this emphasis may suggest that we are already doing a good job
of keeping human values and the broad perspective of affairs uppermost—that the danger is that science may narrow and limit our focus.

The truth seems to be otherwise.
Many educators feel, for one thing,
that the scientists and engineers
we train tend too often to be specialists set in a kind of social vacuum, unable to see beyond the end
of their slide rule.

But there is a worse aspect. The uncomfortable fact is that, as we lag in science, we don't really do
a very good job in the humanities
and social sciences, either.

It's an old story now, but it is still the story, that students at both
the college and high school levels
often test poorly in fundamentals
like history, politics, economics
and geography.

As for art, philosophy and the study of religions, there seems to be even less grasp of these.

Education in America appears
to be hitting merely a glancing blow in all too many cases. And arguments continue to rage as to the extent to which the students,
the teachers, and the educational system are to blame.

We all know we have long suffered a shortage of teachers and
that many we have are poorly
trained or ill suited to the work.
We know, too, that with the coun-
less bright distractions of today
many students look in school for the paths of least resistance.

Those who assail the system say
it allows the student too much freedom to select easy courses,
puts too much stress on practical
"how to" studies which an individual can as well learn for himself
in other ways, and devotes too
much time to "life adjustment"— getting along with other students,
the teacher, etc.

However the blame should fall,
the point would seem to be that it should fall somewhere. No matter what the Russians do or don't do, we need better education, and

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
USA Would Probable Lose War To Russia Right Now; Secret Report To White House Shows We Have Maginot Line In Turkey And Europe; Administration Sugarcoats The Alarming Facts.

(Editor's Note—Drew Pearson today continues his penetrating diagnosis of Washington defenses and our lag on missiles and satellites.)

WASHINGTON.—The secret report on American defenses parts of which have leaked to the press, is far more alarming than the leaks indicate. One clue to its alarming content is the fact that the White House wanted only two copies—the original and one carbon—made. It did not want other copies in existence which might show Congress how weak our defenses are.

For the depressing, inescapable deductions from this report are that the United States today has become a second-class power.

In brief, Russia could launch war on us at any time with almost certain odds of turning the United States into a socialist, satellite, subject nation.

This is not pleasant news to publish. However, the United States has come through some rough times in the past, dating back to the grim, bleak winters when the Pilgrim fathers battled famine, cold, and Indians. And if the American people really understand the unadulterated, unsugarcoated truth regarding what faces them today, I am confident they will be equal to the occasion.

But they have to know the facts.

TRUTH WAS SUPPRESSED

The secret report which has caused such worried reverberations in high administration circles was prepared by members of the "Arden Farms" study group, a body of top businessmen, scientists, and economists in New York who began making studies in government when Eisenhower was president of Columbia university.
Over 100 of them worked on this report for the Office of Defense Administration, and it is actually a composite document which goes to a better educational product, than we get today.

into many different facets of our defense.

Real fact is that the report should send no tremors of alarm through the administration, because all the facts in it were known not only to the Pentagon, but to newsmen who took the trouble to dig into the defense picture.
If the facts were not known to the White House, then it was because the White House was not sufficiently interested.

The secret report warns:

That Russia is ahead of us in all phases of modern warfare except atomic submarines;

That our forward strategic air command bases could be knocked out by Russian missiles;

That the United States could be devastated by a mass Soviet attack;

That we would be lucky to destroy five or six Soviet cities in retaliation.

In brief, the United States would lose a war with Russia.

NO FOOD AFTER 20 DAYS

Further depressing facts include:
The United States would have food for only 20 days in case of Russian mass attack, because food is located in the great grain elevators and warehouses of the big cities. These cities would be wiped out first.

With strict rationing, the American people could get by on a low, 1,800-calorie subsistence diet. But no rationing cards have been printed, and it would take four months in time of war to print them. The war might be over before then.

Most shocking revelation is that which shows our much-publicized forward SAC bases to be another "Maginot Line." Actually this is no revelation at all. Top officials have known for months that these strategic air command bases in Turkey, Japan, most of Europe, were just as impotent as the huge wall of steel and concrete, the Maginot Line, behind which France basked in self-satisfied complacency prior to Hitler's attack.

However, the administration has deliberately gone out of its way to fool the public regarding the defense picture

SUBSTITUTE NOSE CONE

When the President went on the air with his first "chins-up" telecast, he dramatically exhibited the nose cone of a Jupiter rocket, which he said had returned to the earth, thereby solving the question of re-entry through the atmosphere.

The Air Force scientific brain center in California, Ramo-Wool-ridge, has now written a report branding this a hoax.

The nose cone which Ike showed on television, according to the Air Force report, was not a test of re-entry at all. For this particular nose cone, the Air Force memo says, re-entered the atmosphere at a cockeyed angle which slowed it down; also rotated, which slowed it even more. Thus it landed at less than one-third the speed of a normal ballistic missile.

The test, therefore, concluded the Ramo-Woolridge memo, was of "negligible" value. Yet the President demonstrated the nose cone to the American public as a proof that it had solved the re-entry problem.

All the above facts were known to the Defense Department at the time the missile was sent to the White House for the President's telecast. The question of whether Ike should show the nose cone was debated back and forth in advance at the Pentagon.
It was finally argued that,

Farm Income Higher, But Costs Jump

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farmers were caught on the horns of inflation during the month ended Nov.
15. Their commodities brought more but their expenses hit an all-time high.

As a result, they broke about even on the cost-price rise and the farm parit, ratio remained fixed at 81 per cent — the same as the previous month and a year ago.

Parity is the price needed to put commodities sold by farmers on a par with the cost of things they must buy—theoretically a fair return for their products.

Farmers' costs — for commodities, services, interest, taxes and farm wages—jumped seven-tenths of 1 per cent for the month to a record high, according to the Agriculture Department's monthly price report.

The report indicated farm costs rose 3 per cent over the past 12 months. This increase matched the rise in prices farmers received for crops and livestock over the same period.

The prices farmers got for their commodities rose eight-tenths of 1 per cent during the month ended
Nov. 15. The increase was paced by higher prices for meat animals, vegetables, poultry and eggs. This was partly offset by decreases in prices for cotton, feed, grains and tobacco.

Any additional buying power farmers achieved by virtue of higher prices received, however, was nullified by the higher cost of production and living. In short, the farmer got more, but he had to spend more.

The department said the increase in farm expenses was caused by a general rise in retail prices. Except for building materials, prices paid for every category of items bought by farmers for family living purposes rose during the month. The largest advances were recorded for new automobiles and clothing, but retail prices of household furnishings also rose moderately from mid-October.

Average hog prices for the month were $16.70 per hundred-weight compared with $16.90 in mid-October and $14.30 a year ago.

Average beef cattle prices were $17.80 per hundredweight, compared with $17.30 a month ago and $14.50 a year ago.

though this particular nose cone was not a test, another Jupiter nose cone had been witnessed coming down, although it was not recovered. Therefore, it would not be deceiving the public, officials felt, if a substitute nose cone was used.

Actually, the presentation of a nose cone as a brand-new triumphant achievement was deceptive in the first place. For last May, an experimental X-47 3-stage rocket was fired 650 miles straight up at Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., and the nose cone recovered intact.

These are some of the problems a confused public faces in trying to figure out just where we stand and why publication of the secret report on USA vs. USSR military strength is so important.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for City Commissioner. Many friends and acquaintances have come to me and asked me to run.

I would like to make it clear that I have made no commitments to any individual or group of individuals other than to serve the City of Harrisburg to the best of my ability, and I intend to make no such commitments at any time.

If I am elected and chosen to be finance commissioner, I will insist on an audit before I take the office, and I will also insist on this audit being published in the Daily Register. Furthermore, I will insist on an income and expense report being published regularly in the Daily Register.

The salary for this office is $33.00 per month. I am willing to serve the City of Harrisburg for this amount but I cannot justify spending a lot of money to get elected, so if you do not see as many ads as you may expect, this will explain why.

I will appreciate your support.

Sincerely,

LEE MORSE

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D. D.
(Written for NEA Service)

Bargains are piled on tables for people to sort out the particular items which appeal to their fancy. When a sale takes place, people scramble to obtain the best material, the most attractive patterns, the choice quality and the lowest prices. The mere scramble for merchandise on sale sometimes develops into a riot.
Occasionally people are injured
Many people become wrought up emotionally.

In the heat of struggling for the best buy, we often purchase items which we do not need. We frequently discover that we have become the owners of merchandise which we did not examine and which we did not want at all. Yet in the heat of enthusiasm, we had pleasure. We are not particularly critical of ourselves because we know that we shall repeat our actions at another sale.

When peace and salvation are offered to us at prices less than the price of confusion, riot, emotional uproar, we pass by without noticing the spiritual bargains offered by God. Let us open our eyes and observe the merchandise of God's love.

OUT OUR WAY

Matter of FACT

The love for perfume is probably as old as the human race. Vases containing oily pastes, still faintly fragrant, have been found in Egyptian tombs 5,000 years old. Frankincense and myrrh were brought by the Magi to the Babe of Bethlehem. The word perfume comes from the Latin word fumus, meaning smoke, indicating that the earliest way of making a pleasant odor was by burning these odorous woods, gums and leaves.

Sukarno Escapes Assassins' Bombs In Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (U. S. — Security agents pressed an island-wide manhunt today for the terrorists whose bombs killed nine persons and wounded 155 others in the attempted assassination of President Sukarno. Sukarno was not hurt.

At the same time, the Indonesian government carried out threatened retaliatory measures against the Dutch for the refusal of The Netherlands to surrender the Dutch-held territory of West Irian—also known as Dutch New Guinea.

Sukarno himself escaped uninjured in the attempt on his life Saturday night at the Tikini elementary school. He called on the nation to remain calm in a nationwide broadcast and then sped out of Jakarta under armed escort, apparently for the summer presidential palace at Bogor.

Sukarno had gone to the school with two of his children who attended classes there for ceremonies in connection with the third anniversary of its opening.

A crowd estimated in the hundreds passed around Sukarno as he left the building. Suddenly, the gunshot rang out—it was believed to be the signal for the bomb throwers.

Four grenades arched through the air in quick succession to explode into the suddenly panicked crowd. Shrapnel ripped through the densely packed crowd.

Sukarno, an avowed neutralist, has been pushing a program for what he termed "a guided democracy," which would bring the Communists into the government in an advisory capacity. The move has met with strong criticisms from the strong Moslem parties.

Two Roadblocks in Path Of Any Effort to Change U. S. Education System

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (U. S. — Two major obstacles lie in the path of any effort to tighten up U. S. high school curriculums to meet the challenge of Russia's heavy emphasis on science and math.

Educators and public officials agree that these obstacles can be removed only by radically changed American attitudes.

One roadblock is the insistent desire of many American parents for a wide variety of training courses which, while admittedly desirable, were never a part of formal education.

These include teaching youths to drive safely, to cook and sew, to make social "adjustments," and to develop proficiency in various vocational skills or hobbies.

A High Proportion
Few parents apparently realize how large a proportion of school time is now devoted to such "courses." A recent study in a suburban high school that is widely regarded as one of the nation's best showed only 70 per cent of its teaching time devoted to academic subjects. In many high schools, it is less than 50 per cent.

The other big obstacle to higher education standards is the American belief that every child should be compelled to attend school until he is 16 or 18 years old, regardless of his desire or aptitude for scholastic learning.

The Daily Register, Harrisburg, Illinois

Should they be allowed to quit school and hunt for jobs which are often very hard for an adolescent to find? Or should they be turned loose on the streets to swell the juvenile delinquency statistics?

Groping for a solution, some city school systems recently have adopted what they call the "multiple track curriculum plan." This is a device for segregating high school students into several groups according to their learning ability and giving each group a different program of studies.

LATEST HAPPENINGS AT

EQUALITY

By Ida B. Coyle

Mr. and Mrs. Leland E. Ashby Jr., and son, Douglas, of Bunker Hill are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac E. White of Equality.

Mrs. I. E. White has been notified that her brother, Roy H. Kennedy, of Winston Salem, N. C., suffered a heart attack soon after entering the City Memorial Hospital for a checkup, November 16, following a case of flu and pneumonia and will remain there for two or three weeks for a complete bed rest.

The Fall supper served by the women of St. Joseph's Church on Wednesday evening last week was well attended and proved a decided success.

Joe Jacobs and his fiancée, Miss Margaret Curulowski of Forest Park near Chicago were here for a week end visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Rose Jacobs. Mrs. Jacobs accompanied them home to be present for their wedding on Saturday, November 30.

Miss Bernadette Unfried returned to Chicago Sunday following a week's visit here with her father, A. C. Unfried, and Mrs. Unfried.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Woods had as visitors from Friday to Tuesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woods and Tom Butler of Alton.

Mrs. Isabelle King returned to her home in St. Louis Saturday after spending several weeks here on account of the illness and death of Mrs. Richard DuVall.

Mrs. J. R. Woods of Gary, Ind., visited over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wargel of near this city.

Mrs. George C. Guad and Mrs. Frank Pierce were business visitors in Evansville Thursday last week.

A little son weighing seven pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stille of Waukegan on Tuesday, November 19. He has been named William Kenneth. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bragg of this city are grandparents. Mrs. Bragg went to Waukegan last week to be with her new grandson for two weeks.

Mrs. Ira Adams, Mrs. Dorsey McLain and Miss Sue Stuart went to St. Louis Thursday for a week end visit returning Saturday afternoon.

Miss Linda Mahan spent last week in Carbondale the guest of Miss Nana Sisk, a student in Southern Illinois University.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barnett were in Marion Friday to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Guad will go to Gideon, Mo., Wednesday evening this week to spend over Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wathen.

Mrs. Clyde Ebbs of Denver, Colo., arrived in this city Thursday last week for a visit with her father, Sam Sisk, and Mrs. Sisk. Mr. Sisk has been quite ill for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip DeVous were in St. Louis Sunday last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Don Elder and to attend the Christening of their little daughter, Pamela Sue, at St. George's Catholic Church. Mr. and Mrs. DeVous were sponsors for the little girl.

Governor William G. Stratton said that for the sixth consecutive month overall public assistance loads in September decreased and for the first time this year all five programs shared in the decline.

If groans of "I feel so stuffed" are heard following Thanksgiving dinner at state Department of Public Welfare hospitals and schools, they may well be credited to the consumption of 14 tons of roast turkey and all the trimmings.

The 50,000 residents and 6,000 employes will consume 1,700 gallons of fruit cocktail or tomato juice, 5 1/2 tons of sage dressing, 1,350 gallons of gravy, 1 1/2 tons of sweet potatoes, 5 tons of cranberry sauce, 2 tons of celery and 360 gallons of olives, 2 1/2 tons of bread or 4,667 dozens of rolls, 34 tons of butter, 9,400 pumpkin pies

The king-size meal will be slugged down with 3,120 gallons each of milk and coffee.

The booming Illinois turkey industry is producing another record year in 1957, the state Department of Agriculture announced. According to the department's Division of Agricultural Statistics, turkeys being raised in the state this year total more than one and one-quarter million, ten per cent more than 1956. The national increase is only five per cent.

Despite the upswing in turkey business, Chief Statistician Joseph Ewing said that about 71 per cent of the gobblers that adorn Thanksgiving dinner tables throughout the state will be "foreigners," or not home grown. Ewing said that approximately 55 million pounds of turkey will be required to satisfy the tastes of Illinoisans this year. The state output was approximately 16 million pounds, fresh dressed in 1956. Every man, woman and child in the country will eat an average of about 56 pounds of turkey in 1957, he said.

Monday, December 2, 1957

Statistics show that the birds were a "food luxury" around 1930 when the average American consumed less than a pound and a half annually.
Water will boil at a lower temperature on a mountain than at sea level.

552 Killed in Traffic Mishaps Over Holiday

By United Press
Traffic accidents killed 552 persons during the four-day Thanksgiving weekend, a final count showed today.

The National Safety Council said the total topped the "normal" figure of 500 deaths for a four-day non-holiday period at this time of year.

The United Press counted 552 persons killed in traffic from 6 p. m. Wednesday to midnight Sunday. Plane crashes killed 9 persons and 128 were killed in miscellaneous accidents for an overall total of 689.

California led all other states with 60 traffic deaths. Ohio was second with 57. New York had 28, Michigan 27, Arkansas 25, Illinois 22 and Florida 21.

New Hampshire and the District of Columbia had no fatalities.

The council said November is one of the worst months for traffic accidents because of bad weather and early darkness.

The worst single accident of the holiday killed nine persons Saturday night in a high-speed two-car collision near Nogales, Ariz. Six of the victims were airmen from Davis-Monthan Air Force base at Tucson, Ariz.

11-Year-Old Twin Sisters Drown

ANTIOCH, Ill. (UP) — Eleven-year-old twin sisters drowned Sunday while playing on thin ice at Grass Lake despite the efforts of their father to save them.

Dead were Mary Jane and Hazel Jean Beaman. Their bodies were recovered about 30 feet from shore.

A neighbor boy who saw the girls plunge into the water summoned their father, Samuel, 44, a construction worker. He rushed out onto the ice and jumped into the water. He managed to clutch one of the girls' snowsuits, but it slipped from his grasp.

A passerby, Fred Mitchell, threw a rope to Beaman and pulled him ashore.

biles parked in the front of the building, which were pulled across the street with a wrecker. They were three Edsels and a Chrysler. Charles Townes of Townes Chevrolet said that an area of about 60 by 20 feet at the rear of his main building burned, and the roof and wall falling in. Inside this part of the structure, he said, were axles, tailpipes, mufflers and other equipment. Carpenters were getting busy sealing off this small area from the rest of the garage.

Mr. Townes said that about 55 cars were moved away from the fire scene by his workers and volunteers. Some were new and some were used. He said that ten were moved out of the building adjacent to the Edsel company, ten from the main building, and about 35 from the Townes used car lot at Mill and Locust, between the buildings.

Mr. Townes also had moved out all his office equipment. The site where the fire occurred was an old landmark in Harrisburg. Older residents recalled that there was a mule barn many years ago belonging to Eli Mofield.

Mr. Harper operated the Chrysler-Plymouth agency at the scene from 1935 until a few months ago, when he joined with Russell Ashford as Edsel dealers for this territory. The garage had its formal opening as Edsel sales agency on Sept. 4.

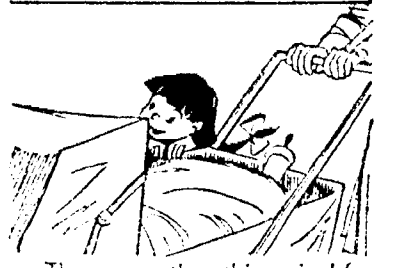

Film Starlet Simone Silva Dies After Stroke

LONDON (UP)—Bosomy film starlet Simone Silva, who was found dead in her apartment here Saturday, died following a stroke, according to a medical report issued today. Friends said Miss Silva, 28, had impaired her health by heavy dieting. She made a bid for fame in 1954 by stripping to the waist to pose for pictures with actor Robert Mitchum at the Cannes Film Festival.

Arrested In Car Stolen Here

Fred Ingram of Harrisburg was arrested yesterday at Mound City and charged with driving while intoxicated and carrying a concealed weapon. Chief of Police Ross Lane said he was informed last night. Ingram was in a car reported stolen from the Ewell Winkelman residence.

Tavern Owner Collects Dime a Word for 'Cussing'

CHEVE COEUR, Ill. (UP) — Any customer who "cusses" in Clovis Giovannetto's tavern has to contribute to a fund for a new Catholic school here at the rate of 10 cents per cuss word.

Giovannetto said he had become alarmed recently at the flow of profanity used by his customers, particularly so close to the Christmas season.

So he posted a sign over his bar reading "No vulgar language allowed. Ten cents a word."

Business has been booming, Giovannetto said, but he did not report how much he has collected.

The first collections already have been turned over to the Rev. J. D. Shaughnessy, pastor of the Sacre Coeur parish here, to be used in the church's building fund.

Moscow Claims Rocket Still Up; Doubt by West

LONDON (UP)—Russia said today the rocket that carried the Soviet's first earth satellite into space is still spinning around the world.

But Western scientists said it was scheduled to drop into the earth's atmosphere last weekend, and probably did.

Moscow Radio this morning said the rocket had made 894 circuits around the earth at 10 p. m. c.s.t. Sunday. It predicted the rocket could be seen before sunrise to-day between 10 and 55 degrees north.

Moscow's claim was met with skepticism by Western observers whose attempts to track the rocket during the weekend met with little success.

American scientists at the Cambridge, Mass., moon-watching station believed the rocket crashed to earth Saturday night.

Sale of License Plates Begins

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — The first 1958 Illinois automobile license plates went on sale today, with a handful of hardy individuals showing up at 4 a. m. to get in line to buy the new plates.

The 1958 license plates, purple and white—the Northwestern University colors—have to be in use no later than Feb. 15. Mail applications must arrive at Springfield by Feb. 1.

C. E. Nelson, chief of the automobile registration division of the secretary of state's office, said the early morning business was brisk. More than 100 persons were in line to buy the plates at mid-morning.

Over the counter and mail sales

of plates also began in Chicago.

Nelson said the first mail order sales of new plates already have been sent out. Regular mail sales began immediately after the mailing of license plates which were reassigned to motorists who held their same numbers over from last year by special application.

Bull Dogs Trip Eldorado for Second Victory

Pavelonis With 30 Points Sets School Record In 68-47 Win Over Eagles

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs, aided by a record-breaking performance from Bob Pavelonis, beat the Eldorado Eagles, 68 to 47, Saturday night to give them a 2-0 mark for the young basketball season.

Pavelonis, junior guard, broke the Harrisburg high school scoring record when he made 30 points against the Eagles. The old high was 27 made by David Anglin against Eldorado in 1954.

This week the locals, after playing their first two games in Daventport gym, take to the road, meeting Marion in a South Seven conference opener Friday night and travelling to Carrier Mills the following evening.

With Eldorado using a tight zone defense which made it difficult for the locals to get the ball into the pivot, Pavelonis was having a field night with his shot from 16 to 18 feet back. He connected with nine field goals and made all 12 of his free throw attempts in collecting his 30 points.

About as big a factor in the win was the playing of Ronnie Maynard, junior center, who did a great job under the offensive boards and had nine field goals for 18 points. The scoring of Maynard and Pavelonis was more than the Eldorado total.

Harrisburg Coach John Dotson used the same starting lineup that he employed against Cartersville Friday night, when Harrisburg won, 67 to 56. Ray Hassett and Kinch Jones at forwards, Maynard at center and Pavelonis and Gary Stricklin at guards. However, his entire squad saw considerable action in the Saturday night affair, as the locals held a 27-point lead over Eldorado at the start of the final frame.

Shawneetown Drops 69-54 Tilt To St. Anthony

St. Anthony of Effingham came to Shawneetown Saturday night and picked up a 69-54 decision.

It was the opening game of the season for St. Anthony, a basketball power in mid Illinois the past few years. Featuring a big team with good speed, the visitors went out in front early and were in command at all times.

The team was accompanied to Shawneetown by a 75-member pep club, travelling in a big chartered bus.

Buenmeyer and Geblen tied for scoring honors in leading St. Anthony to victory, each with 19 points. Jim Cox was tops for Shawneetown with 14 markers. Shawneetown will play at Cave-in-Rock Friday night.

Mendel Wins Chicago City Grid Championship

CHICAGO — Mendel Catholic won the Chicago City Prep Football Championship, beating Calumet, 6-0, in one of the most exciting games in prep grid history Saturday.

With two seconds left, Mendel quarterback Jim Brennan completed a 41-yard pass to end Jim Gallagher who fell into the end zone for the winning touchdown.

The Catholic League champs failed to convert, but it didn't matter. The TD was the climax to a battle that had been waged on almost even terms with Calumet, the Public League titlist.

Stan Hack, Bride Honeymoon in Florida

ROCKFORD, Ill. — Former Chicago Cub Manager Stan Hack and the former Glennce Graf, Rochelle, Ill., began a Florida honeymoon today.

They were married in a quiet civil ceremony Saturday by Probate Judge Seely P. Forbes. Only the bride's close relatives attended the wedding in Hack's home.

Hack and his bride plan to drive to St. Petersburg, Fla., this week. They have rented a home at Treasure Island and will remain there until the St. Louis Cardinals arrive in Florida for spring training.

Hack recently signed a Cardinal coaching contract.

Questions
PIERRE S. D. — State Comptroller John Penne said the giving away of 204 pairs of wine by the municipal liquor store in Pierpont at Christmas, 1956, was "wholly unauthorized." And he "questioned" claims paid by the town for Christmas candy and decorations.

Ohio State and Navy Biggest Bowl Favorites; Middies Blank Army, 14-0

By United Press
Ohio State's newly-crowned National Champions and Navy's latest "team of desire" emerged as the biggest favorites today in the "early line" for college football's bowl games.

The Buckeyes are picked to defeat Oregon by at least 15 points in the Rose Bowl while Navy is a 12-point choice over Rice for their Cotton Bowl encounter.

Oklahoma's dethroned national champions, generally rated at least three touchdowns better than their opponents on any given Saturday, are "only" a 10-point pick over Duke in the Orange Bowl.

The Sugar and Gator Bowl games shape up as the closest struggles, at least in the minds of the Broadway oddsmakers. They are quoting Mississippi as a three-point favorite over Texas in Sugar Bowl and list Texas A&M by two points over Tennessee in the Gator Bowl.

The Middles accepted the Cotton Bowl berth Saturday after blanking Army 14-0 at Philadelphia.

Rice wrapped up the Southwest Conference title and the other Cotton Bowl berth by blanking Baylor, 20-0.

Mississippi had to settle for a 7-7 tie against Mississippi State in their season finale, but still wound up with the Sugar Bowl berth opposite Texas A&M will tackle Tennessee, a 20-6 victor over Vanderbilt, in the Gator Bowl.

Auburn & Temple State Win
Meanwhile, Auburn rolled to a 40-0 triumph over Alabama and Arizona Tempe State whipped Arizona, 47-7, to wind up as the nation's only major unbeaten and untied teams. However, neither will go "bowling" on New Year's Day.

Oklahoma, Orange Bowl bound finished the final big weekend of the regular season by crushing Oklahoma State, 53-6.

In other major Saturday games, Holy Cross beat Boston College 14-0; Clemson crushed Furman 45-6; Notre Dame swamped Southern Cal 40-12; Virginia surprised North Carolina, 20-13; Georgia upset Georgia Tech, 7-0, and LSU downed Tulane, 25-6.

Others — Texas Christian, 4; Illinois, Oregon State and Princeton, 1 each.

The state of Washington, named in honor of the first U. S. president is the only state to be named after a president.

Shannon Sets New Rushing Mark for SIU

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Despite the fact that he missed one game completely and saw only limited service in some others, Carver Shannon, Southern Illinois University right halfback, set a new individual season rushing mark for the Salukis.

Playing in only eight games, he netted 723 yards in 88 carries—an average of 8.2 yards per try. He also set new all-time single game rushing and scoring records as he picked up 249 yards in nine carries (an average of more than 27 yards per try) and scored 32 points as SIU tripped Great Lakes, 38-0, in the season finale last Saturday.

Last year Shannon, who is only a junior, gained 694 yards in 99 carries and scored 90 points—an all-time SIU scoring record.

By defeating Great Lakes, SIU finished the season with a 5-4 mark.

Dawkins Elected Army Grid Captain

WEST POINT, N. Y. — Halfback Pete Dawkins of Royal Oak, Mich., has been elected captain of Army's 1958 football team. He is the first halfback to hold the honor since Glenn Davis shared the team captaincy with Doc Blanchard in 1946.

— the Salukis' best grid record since 1947.

Second best ground garner for the Salukis this year was fullback Charles Hamilton, Heilm, who gained 345 yards in 71 carries. Hamilton also was the leading punter with 513 yards in 16 punts—an average of 31 yards.

Quarterback Bill Norwood, Centraha, paced the Salukis in passing with 26 pass completions in 62 attempts for a net gain of 34 yards. Cecil Hart, halfback from Hillsboro, was the team's leading pass receiver with six catches good for 148 yards. Shannon was the top scorer with 82 points.

Best SIU team mark was in rushing with 2,138 yards in nine tilts—a per game average of 237.5 yards.

Southern's prospects for next year appear fairly bright as only three players—captain and end Marion Rushing, Pinckneyville; fullback Paul Restivo, Herrin; and end Jack Lester, Abilene, Tex., will be lost by graduation.

THE STORY: Private investigator Jim Bennett's introduction to a prospective client, Hugo Howell, is a fight in a resort tavern. Jim, Howell and a man named Ambrose Lott, Howell's companion, are taken to police headquarters. Chief Campbell says he once worked for Jim's agency.

The chief motioned me to a chair beside a small desk and I sat down. He sat opposite me and clasped his thin fingers. "How did you get mixed up in this?"

"Hmm," the chief said, "one of those."

"Do you know anything about Howell or the man with him?"

He shook his head. "I never saw either of them before. We get a lot of strangers in here during the summer — this is a resort town."

"What about the girl? Is she a stranger, too?"

He smiled. "Honey is my daughter."

For a moment I couldn't think of anything to say. Then I said, "You've got a nice girl there."

Chief. She went to bat for me at the hotel."

"Honey's a good girl," he said seriously. "I don't know what I'd do without her. Her mother is an invalid—has been for years—and Honey helps take care of her and keeps house for me."

"I'm sorry to hear about your wife."

He sighed. "It's been—difficult. A series of expensive operations didn't help and she needs constant care. I provide a part time nurse for her—I can't expect Honey to sacrifice everything—but on my salary."

He paused and gave me a wry smile. "But I didn't mean to bore you with my personal problems. Since Howell is your client, I'll turn him loose—if you'll be responsible for him."

"Thanks, but let him sleep it off. I'll see him in the morning."

He nodded. "All right. I'll probably find him a little—I'm the mayor, too." Again he gave me his wry grin.

I got up and followed him out the door.

The pale man was still there,

talking to the chief's daughter. He broke off when we appeared. I smiled at her. "It seems that I couldn't have had a better witness than the police chief's daughter."

She flushed faintly beneath the tan. "So Dad told you?"

"Honey," the chief said, "Mr. Bennett is a celebrity. He's one of the best known private detectives in the state. I recognized him from a picture in the Cleveland papers."

"Really?" She raised her smooth brows. "An honest-to-goodness private eye?"

"Please," I said, smiling. "Private investigator."

A man came in from outside. He was a young man, not too tall, but stockily built, with thick black hair parted on the side. He was deeply tanned and glasses with thick amber frames gave him a studious look. His eyes were a clear blue and his chin was firm, almost stubborn, but his mouth held a soft, sensitive look. Something about his features was familiar to me, but I couldn't place it. He wore tan walking shorts, a white T-shirt and canvas crepe sole shoes.

He nodded to the chief's daughter, said seriously, "Hello, Honey," and turned to the chief. "Good evening, sir. I'm Wayne Howell. The bartender at the hotel told me my father was here. I wonder if I could see him?"

"Son," the chief said kindly, "uh—under the weather this evening. Maybe you'd better wait until morning."

"I understand," young Howell said with a trace of bitterness. "I'm sorry if he caused any trouble."

"Nothing that a little fine won't fix up," the chief said cheerfully. I gazed at Wayne Howell and saw the resemblance to his father. Someday he would be fat like Hugo, but I hoped he would not inherit Hugo's drinking habits. Honey Campbell said, "Wayne, this is my father and—"

She nodded at me—"Mr. Bennett. Mr. Bennett is a private detective." Honey said admiringly, and added hastily, "I mean investigator."
